970-247-9621

Our staff is working with federal, state, and local governments to provide a comprehensive list of business funding and resources. This working document will be updated daily.

Census 2020

- Your response to the Census helps direct billions of dollars in federal funds to local communities for schools, roads, disasters, and other public services.
- It's quick and easy. Please take 10 minutes to respond online at <https://my2020census.gov/> OR by phone. English is 1.844.330.2020 and Spanish is 1.844.468.2020. The numbers for other languages can be found at <https://2020census.gov/en/ways-to-respond/responding-by-phone.html>
- It's safe, secure, and confidential. Your information and privacy are protected.

Advocacy

What the Federal Government Needs to Do to Enable Small Businesses to Survive the Coronavirus <<https://is-tracking-link-api-prod.appspot.com/api/v1/click/6351704468226048/5599633892442112>>
Tell Congress to keep small businesses solvent through the crisis. Local First message: Small businesses need grants and subsidies, as well as low-cost loans. We urge you to contact your members of Congress, add your organization to our statement, and help us promote this.

Business Resources

Colorado Department of Labor & Employment (CDLE)

<https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/cdle/information-and-resources-coronavirus>

Emergency Paid Leave Rule - This rule is meant to limit the spread of highly contagious disease and enables workers in at-risk occupations to access testing.

Unemployment Insurance - During layoffs, all employees are encouraged to apply for unemployment insurance. Those who are job-attached (meaning workers will be expected to return after a separation of up to 16 weeks) should file as "job-attached."

Work-Share Program may allow certain employees who have had reduced hours to claim partial unemployment benefits.

Layoff/Separations Layoff assistance is available to employers through the Workforce Center.

The Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment (CDPHE)

Leading the State's multi-agency crisis response. We encourage you and all of your partners to stay informed with reliable, up-to-date information through CDPHE's website:

Colorado Procurement Technical Assistance Center (CO-PTAC)

Inevitably, Colorado small businesses will face delays and difficulties in contract execution. The CO-PTAC remains open with counselors and subject matter experts available to support and advise Colorado businesses on how to respond and continue servicing their government customers. We are offering teleconferencing and video alternatives to in-office meetings for our clients around the state. Contact our office at 719-667-3845 or visit our webpage at www.coloradoptac.org for support.

United Way

One Fair Wage: This organization typically advocates for the end of the sub-minimum wage for tipped workers, but right now it's raising funds to give cash assistance to tipped workers and service workers affected by COVID-19. The goal is to give $213 (a play on the $2.13 federal minimum wage for tipped workers) to each worker who needs it. Go here to donate or request help.

United States Bartenders Guild Bartender Emergency Assistance Program: The USBG is taking donations to help bartenders experiencing financial difficulties due to the coronavirus outbreak. These grants are paid directly to recipients who have shown immediate need. (Note that you do not need to be a member of the USBG to apply for a grant.) Jameson Irish Whiskey pledged $500,000, and others are following suit. If you need help, apply here.

Restaurant Workers' Community Foundation: In response to massive coronavirus-related closures and downturns in revenue, this restaurant-centric organization set up a COVID-19 Crisis Relief Fund to benefit both restaurant owners and workers. Click here to donate to the fund, which provides zero-interest loans to businesses and funds for individual workers experiencing economic hardship. For help, go here.
